Little and often!

There's no real secret to keeping your child/children reading but we do give the same advice as always... read little and often! It doesn't matter what your child is reading (shopping lists, street signs, maps, comics etc) so they as they have the chance to read a little and often.

Enjoy it!

Focus on having fun and enjoying it! Read whatever your child is interested in- read to them, listen to them read or even echo read. It all makes a difference!
